These settings are in SeaMonkey application, but should be easily translated to other IMAP clients. Be sure you complete part 1 before doing this setup. Without the Google password for Gmail this won’t connect. Substitute your directory ID where mine is in all cases. When password is requested be sure to use your Google-generated password.